MEETING OF THE TRIBUNE TRUSTEES.

VICE PRESIDENT COLFAX RE-TURNS TO WASHING-TON.

FUNERAL OF EDWIN FORREST IN PHILADELPHIA.

THE TWEED CASE COMMENCED.

MEETING OF TRIBUNE TRUSTEES The Tribune trustees held a meeting Friday afternoon, every member present. Mr. Sinclair brought forward the Colfax proposition. It received the support of only himself and one other, six out of the eight trustees opposing it, sustaining Mr. Beid's conduct of the paper, and urging that he be retained, with no instruction save to continue carrying out the policy of Mr. Greeley's card. It was settled that no change would be made in the policy of the paper as Mr. Greeley left it change in the conwithout trolling proprietors. clair then went to work to make up a pool of outside stockholders to sell the controlling interest. It is understood that hewith Dr. Aver and the representatives of estates of one or two deceased proprietors, not including Mr. Greeley's, have nearly or quite made up the fifty-one shares needed, and propose selling at the rate of a million dollars to a combination representing the telegraph and administration interests. Mr. Reid said that in case the proprietorship and policy should be changed, he would also sell his four shares, and at

PROTEST OF MR. REID. It has transpired to-day that in the trustees meeting, Mr. Reid protested against Mr. Sinclair's proposal to abandon the ground on which Mr. Greeley placed the paper in his card resuming the editorship. He said Mr. Sinclair was the last man who ought to do this injustice to Mr. Greeley's memory, because it was through Mr. Sinclair's solicitation, continued, that Greeley finally consented to become a presidential candidate. Mr. Sinclair admitted this, but said he urged Mr. Greeley to it and wrote letters over the country to further Mr. Greeley's chance at Cincinnati, because he knew Mr. Greeley would not support Grant, and he thought the next best thing was to get him to be a candidate himself. Mr. Reid said he himself had not favored Mr. Greeley's candidacy and had discouraged Mr. Greeley from it nearly up to the time when Mr. Greeley directed him to go to Cincincati as his representative; but he believed in the Cincinnati platform as Mr. Greeley did. and would not remain in charge of the 'Tribune' if that platform were opposed. and the position in which Mr. Greeley placed the paper by his card and his latest writings were flatly abandoned, as he un-

Sr. Louis, Dec. 16-The horse disease continues to abate although fatal cases occur daily. Probably there have been two hundred deaths altogether since it broke out. All street car companies resumed business partially, and full service will be done in the course of a few days.
